Dear Frank,

I am greatly indebted to you for all of the courtesies which you extended to us and to myself in particular on the occasion of our recent visit to your post. Your abilities both as a driver and as a monetary exchange artist leave nothing to be desired!

I hope that one of the few benefits which you might have received from our visits was a chance to get a bit more information that may help you from time to time.

I am working on your Christmas present now. Until you get it, best wishes.

Yours,
